Projects (personal)

Summarist: Summarist Home Page | GitHub: celestiahall44/Advanced-Internship

- Summarist is a book summary web application that helps users explore key insights from popular books. I built this project to enhance my frontend development skills, focusing on responsive design, interactive features, and a seamless user experience.

Ultraverse: Ultraverse | GitHub: celestiahall44/celestia-internship

- Ultraverse Internship Project is a responsive web application built during my internship to showcase my frontend development skills. I designed and developed the site using modern web technologies, focusing on user experience, responsive design, and interactive functionality while applying real-world development practices.
